The basic elements of the business model

Partners	Key activities	Value proposition	Customers
Local toilet manufacturers	Rents out ~1'720 toilets	<ul><li>Clean &amp; hygienic</li><li>Affordable</li></ul>	<ul> <li>Toilet users         <ul> <li>(two families sharing</li> <li>(two families sharing</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
Ultrafiltration membrane manufacturer	20 collectors collect separated	<ul> <li>(no upfront investments)</li> <li>Reliable collection of separated feces and urine</li> </ul>	one toilet) • Landlords and tenants
Local contractors for installing & repairing	feces and urine
Treatment equipment providers	Operates 20 RRPs	<ul> <li>Locally produced end-products</li> <li>Competitive prices</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Wholesalers</li> </ul>
Mobile phone operators	Sells end-products

Cost, revenue and profit estimation

Costs

- Investment costs for toilets (total $1.75 million) and RRPs (total $0.55 million)
- Investment time horizon: 20 years (toilet replacement after 10 years)
- Operational costs for toilets, RRPs and logistics

Revenues

- Service fee for rental toilets
- End-product sales

Design by EOOS

© by eawag & Fabrik30.ch